

I need some time to think these are your best days your best days
to running over to looking over learning the books
turning the books
try to run but it follows you up the hill and pulls the bridge down try saying no occasionally try to save your work try to save your song you forget to take your medicine we need to get inside you push we need to get inside of you
